Practice Before The EEOC

Instructors: Gary Gilbert, Deryn Sumner, Alexis Tsotakos, Nicole Diaz, & Julie Gold

Location: Virtual (Zoom for Government)

Time: 9:00 AM – 4:30 PM EST

If you only attend one program this year, this should be it! This 4-day course will provide attendees, both new and experienced, with invaluable insights from our experienced instructors as they demonstrate best practices to increase skill and effectiveness when practicing before the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC). Attendees will learn how to assess potential litigation risk of a case for their agency, how to conduct effective discovery, how to evaluate a claim for damages and present arguments that any award of damages should be limited, how to draft concise and effective written submissions to the EEOC., and strategies for presenting your case at hearing. Throughout the sessions, attendees will learn about common pitfalls and how to avoid them. This training will also include a module about the latest developments in the EEOC.
